Seventeenth Century Holland; An exhibition of about eight paintings, fifty prints, and twelve drawings assembled from the collections of the Cleveland Museum of Art will be on view in Gallery XVI of the Museum during January and February. Among artists to be included are Rembrandt, Frans Hals, Pieter de Hooch, Hobbema, Jan van Goyen, Gerard ter Borch, Bakhuysen, Ostade, Ruysdael, Seghers, and van de Velde.

The exhibition is arranged to tie in with the loan exhibition, "Dutch Painting, the Golden Age," an exhibition of Dutch pictures of the 17th century, at the Toledo Museum of Art which is held under the high patronage of Her Majesty the Queen of the Netherlands, lent from the leading museums of five European countries, Canada and the United States.
